Cases.....

Cases have, of late come to the notice of Government in which unnecessary delay occurred while forwarding applications from the dependents of deceased Government servants for gratuities from the Compassionate Fund. Rule 1 in Section A of Appendix XIII-A of the Bombay Civil Services Rules Manual, Volume II, clearly lays down that no application will be ceonsidered which is not submitted to the Department of Government concerned within one year of the death of the Government servant, unless the delay in submission is sufficiently explained. Heads of Departments are, therefore requested to see that applications for the grant of gratuity from the Compassionate Fund are submitted to Government as promptly as possible, after the death of a Government servant and that no undue delay occurs in such cases in future.
